IPSSW 2023

Improving Pediatric Outcomes with Simulation: Human Factors and Technology

PLAN TO EXHIBIT AND SPONSOR TODAY!

15th International Pediatric Symposia and Workshops

IPSSW brings renowned global experts to the world's largest meeting dedicated exclusively to pediatric and perinatal simulation. Support the physicians, nurses, researchers and educators in three days of in-depth discussion on the role simulation plays to provide safe and effective care for children and infants and the continued expansion of pediatric simulation across the globe.
